Mrs. J. R. Thomas Passes Away.

On Tuesday at about 6 o'clock a. m. Mrs. J. R. Thomas, after a brief illness entered into the rest that is prepared for the people of God. None but those who have sat in the shadow of a great bereavement can fully weigh such a sorrow as this. Those who have gone down into the valley of suffering and stood by the side of a loved one, as hope after hope dropped away as the petals fall from a fading flower, know that such anguish cannot find solace in the tenderest words. She who has gone forth could not be supported on her solitary path by any earthly friend. The husband with a devotion in few men are capable of, whose strength was given sweetly, tenderly to this precious wife and mother, whose heroic devotion never faltered, could not detain her by the clasp of earthly love; but after the last word had been spoken, the last sign of recognition was gone, a look of peace settled on her face which proclaimed victory, and he knew she was resting on a mighty arm.

Well may her children cherish her memory as a precious legacy and we find would say a word of comfort to the stricken ones, we can but let our tears flow in sympathy with theirs and point to them the promise "At eventide it shall be light."

Mary J. Combs was born in Longway Devonshire Co. England, March 20th, 1838, emigrated with the family to Claremont county, Ohio, in 1851. They moved to Jefferson county, Iowa, in 1859, removed to Macon county, Ill. in summer of 1860, was married to John R. Thomas June 20, 1869. Immediately after the war with her husband and family they moved to Green Ridge, Mo. In the spring of 1887 the family moved to Beaver Co., Okla. "No-Man's-Land" where they have since lived.

She was a chapter member of the Congregational Church of Green Ridge Mo. Labored with and was identified with the Christian Church people wherever she lived. She is survived by her husband and eight children and one brother. Three daughters, Mrs. Clara Murphy, Anna L. Jones and Salina Kerstetter, all of Green Ridge, Mo. Mrs. Nettie Brown, Ora Tracy, Will and Art Thomas, of Beaver, Okla. and Miss Maude O. Thomas, editor and proprietor of the Beaver Herald.

The funeral services will be held at the Christian Church Friday, at 10:30 a. m. March 4, 1910, by Rev. Coffey.

Country Correspondence.

Gate Gatherings.

Sam Kerns was at Beaver last week on business.

Born--To Mr. and Mrs. Harold on the 23, a baby girl.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Mathers, H. C. Mathers, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Lee and son Frankie spent the 24th at Wesley lman of Zelma.

George Davis returned last week from a trip to Enid. He reports a great deal of sickness over that way.

Gate celebrated Washington's birthday at the Hall. Three schools were represented, Academy, Willow Springs and Gate. A splendid program had been prepared by the teachers. As each speech was delivered it almost seemed as if they had saved the best for the last, but when the program was all through, it would have taken a good judge to have decided which was best. They were all best, from large ones down to tiny tots. The W. M. U. served soup, crackers, pickles and coffee.

Little Fay Kirkhart and little dog Button, took a notion to attend the Washington celebration, and when his parents missed him, they saw him nearly to Gate. He enjoyed the exercises.

H. C. Mathers and Mr. Fould called at Jim Pines Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Aouda Mathers entertained at dinner Sunday.

Rev. Hatch preached at Gate Sunday before Sunday School. Sunday School is in the hands of and is improving.

Miss Edna Beardsley entered after Sunday School class Saturday afternoon. Light refreshments were served and the little folks had a good time.

Rev. Barber will begin a series of meetings at Gate school house, March 4th. There has been good meetings all around and there is no reason why there cannot be a good one at Gate. We were asked to announce this meeting and ask every one to help. Of course every true Christian worker will be ready to help in every way they can. There is no one at Gate or near Gate that believes the Bible exactly as Brother Barber does as far as I know, but there are lots of people who want to help save souls, who want to help people to be better, and who want to be better themselves. They are all striving to make heaven their home. When Christ was here on earth, he did all the good he could to all the people he met and in all the ways he could. He was prejudiced against no one, but fought against sin and the devil and to make a success of our church and to promote Christianity in our town, we must do this and not fight against one another. This is not a Christlike spirit and can help no one, only Satan. No one person started this meeting. Some parties around Gate as Ed Bro. Barber if he could come to Gate. When he found that he could come, he phoned to J. A. Lee to see if they wanted him at Gate. Mr. Lee had heard nothing about it, but told Bro. Barber as he was going to Gate, he would see what could be done. He took a paper and in a very short time had enough subscribed before he had been to everyone in town. He of course expected every one, especially Christians, would be ready to help with singing and in every way they could. He reported to Bro. Barber who said he would be here March 9th.

Worth a Dollar a Drop

Fred Patchen, Manlius, N. Y., writes: "For a long time I was afflicted with kidney trouble which caused an almost constant pain in my back and inflammation in my bladder. Other remedies did not even relieve me, but two fifty cent bottles of Foley's Kidney Remedy completely cured me and I have not had any symptoms of kidney trouble for over two years." For sale by F. Kokomo Items.

We think spring has begun for the wind is blowing a hurricane like it usually does.

There has been some talk of closing the school on account of the diphtheria, but we trust that they won't as there is only three more weeks of this term.

Clyde Gregg and wife of La Kemp are visiting with Clyde's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gregg.

Dennis McCay has bought him a new up-to-date buggy. Surely some of the girls will get to go buggy riding.

Wess Williams came over from the North Flats Wednesday of last week. He says farming is all right.

O. M. Stephenson has rented the McElmenger farm and says he is going to show people how to farm this year.

Mr. Lusk sold two cows to John Charboneau for which he received a nice little sum of $25 each.

Mary McCay visited with Mrs. Keller one day last week.

Miss Nellie Kildow, Mary McCay Gwen Stevenson, Messrs. Howard Wilson and Dennis McCay was visiting with Pearl McCurdy Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shore was visiting with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Gregg Sunday.

Mr. Ellings and family spent the day with Charley Wagoner's last Sunday.

Bert Waldroff made a trip to Liberal the first of the week.

Mrs. A. T. Stephenson spent Sunday with Loretta McCall. A SILENT ONE.

An Awful Eruption of a volcano excites brief interest, and your interest in skin eruptions will be as short, if you use Bucklin's Arnica Salve, their quickest cure. Even the worst boils, ulcers, or fever sores are soon healed by it. Best for burns, cuts, bruises, sore lips, chapped hands, chilblains and piles. It gives instant relief. 25c at F. C. Tracy's

Elmwood.

Mrs. Elexson and children are recovering from an attack of pneumonia. Edna Kile has been on the sick list for the last week with the grippe.

Mrs. Groves, who has been suffering from an attack of grippe for almost two weeks, is some better at present. A new son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Noble Walters a week ago. The young gentleman is getting along fine, but thinks it pretty cool weather for the time of year.

Thad Green returned from Liberal Friday last. He went to that place to help haul down a car load of household goods which the Steele brothers brought from Illinois. They will locate near La Kemp.

Fred Plain and Miss Ada Cope were married at the home of Fred's mother, Mrs. Sprague, on Sunday Feb. 27th. They will move to the Will Plain farm north of Elmwood.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Green spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Groves.

Will Wade, wife and sister are visiting old friends in Beaver county. They like their new home in Colorado very well. Will is in rather poor health and has not visited around very much since they came back.

Mrs. Barler was called to Texas last week to the bedside of her son Ollie, who is thought to have pneumonia. She was accompanied by Dr. Sowrey. A CAJLER.

A Timely Protection

Everyone knows the after effects of La Grippe are often more dangerous than the disease. So often it leads to pneumonia, which a weakened heart makes fatal. La Grippe coughs, chills and weakens the system, yield quickly to the healing and strengthening qualities of Foley's Honey and Tar. For sale by F. C. Tracy

Blue Mound School Notes

At the close of the school week ending Feb. 18, 1910, Blue Mound's enrollment was 103 pupils.

New pupils enrolled the past week Charley Morris and Harlin Manger.

The attendance the past week has been very irregular on account of the severe weather. Only a very few of the pupils ventured out last Wednesday and so we dismissed school and went home.

We would like to urge the parents in this district if possible to keep the larger boys in school regular during the spring months. We realize that their help is badly needed on the farm during these months and that it is quite a sacrifice to do without their help, still it will be very embarrassing for the boy to be in the same grade with smaller pupils another year. Just because they were not able to stay in school and finish up the work of their grades. While it may mean a little loss for the parents to do without this help, think what a gain, financially, it will be for the boy who finishes his school work successfully. Surely nothing that a parent could leave his child would be of so much value as a good education. As Franklin said "If a man empties his purse into his head, no man can take it from him, an investment in knowledge always pays the best interest."

A very interesting literary meeting was held last Tuesday evening. The next program which will be held March 4. There will be two dialogues, two pantomime, selections by the Blue Mound Quartette, compositions, readings, vocal solos and a debate. Every one is cordially invited to attend.

Coughs that Hang on

Coughs that start in the fall and hang on until spring are sure trouble breeders unless checked and cured. Bronchitis, pneumonia and consumption are the direct result. Foley's Honey and Tar cures the cough, stops the hard breathing and heals and soothes the inflamed air passages. Refuse substitutes. For sale by F. C. Tracy
